

The principal or designate will advise the staff, students and the community of the bussing situation. Ongoing, clear, informed communication must be ensured by the school principal.

3.1 If students are not yet in attendance