Carried

Effective on November 12, 2007 Kim Ransom, formerly the Principal of Margaret Twomey PS transferred to the position of School Effectiveness Lead for the system. Working from the Marathon Board Office, Mr. Ransom advised that the move was precipitated by the Literacy and Numeracy Secretariat's (LNS) ongoing commitment to support boards in improving student achievement, reduce gaps in student achievement and increase confidence in public education. The School Effectiveness Framework was developed to guide schools and boards in the analysis of the teaching and learning environments and the development of school improvement plans.

Heidi Patterson Vice-Principal at Margaret Twomey Public School has been transferred to the position of temporary Principal at Margaret Twomey Public School for the remainder of the 2007-2008 school year.
